Peak Nursing's Reputation and Service Industry Publication

Recently we were featured in the Denver Nursing Star. Jeff was interviewed by Douglas Walter and they discussed why Peak Nursing has been so successful in their 4+ years of business. Our reputation has been enhanced with the constant focus on quality of nursing not the quantity of nurses. They also discussed Peak Nursing's goal of developing long-term relationships and creating partnerships with all of our team members and facilities. By adhering to our principles of integrity, we are able to make a difference in the entire agency experience. Peak Nursing currently works with facilities from Fort Collins to the Four Corners Area.

Establishing a partnership with each facility allows Peak Nursing to understand personal needs of each facility and provide temporary staff that can help make a difference in patient care.

Facilities that compensate for inadequate staff by running their facility short staffed or increasing existing staff's overtime run into burnout issues, unusual amount of nurses calling in sick for shifts, or even resigning from their position.

Peak Nursing hires employees who want to make a difference in the quality of care patients receive. Agency nursing is a great alternative for those who want to control their own schedule, do not need company benefits or are looking for additional hours in a different setting. It is very accommodating to many different schedules. Whether you are looking for full time or part time employment, agency work is a great option. Peak Nursing places no minimum requirements on their staff and if staff members can be flexible, they may pick work in excess of 40 hours per week. We are always looking for team members who want to make a difference in patient care!!!!

PeakNursing.com Is Enhanced to Improve Efficiency

A facility calendar has been added to the website. This will allow staffing coordinators to be more time efficient with their facility staffing needs. Staffing needs will be received instantly without the coordinators picking up a phone! For existing team members, there is a calendar to update us with your availability, and blank time cards that you may print from anywhere. For prospective team members check out our online application and new hire information. Please visit our website and view all of the new and improved changes!
